

Post-hoc diagnostic of the committed Study C run, not a new held-out evaluation; $n = 10$ held-out synthetic units, descriptive Pearson r only. The two candidate causes are collinear ($r = -0.80$).